

Concert Series at Countryside Presbyterian Church

Concert Series at Countryside

The Sunday Afternoon Arts Concert Series was founded by previous Director of Music, Cindy Marshall, in 2006. Its goal was and is to give back to the community, by providing concerts that are free and open to the public while also supporting local musicians in the process.

The Sunday Afternoon Arts Concerts celebrates its 15 Year Anniversary offering exceptional Sunday afternoon music to our Ocala neighbors this Fall season of 2021. Concerts are performed in the Sanctuary on the second Sunday of each month from September to May at 3 p.m. Admission is free with a love offering.

We welcome saxophone recording artist EIRINN ABU in concert on Sunday, September 10, 2023 at 3:00 PM.

Sunday 3:00 pm Concerts, 2023-2024

September 10, 2023 – Eirinn Abu (Irish Forever) Returning to Countryside with his amazing saxophone, Eirinn Abu will be playing favorites from his many CDs.

October 8, 2023 – Soprano Jennifer Foster has performed internationally from San Francisco to Brussels and will present an unforgettable afternoon of music.

November 12, 2023 – Southern Express, 17 piece BIG BAND plays music that spans generations and will be saluting our veterans.

December 10, 2023 – The Central Florida Master Choir will present “Go Tell It on the Mountain,” directed by Dr. Hal McSwain and accompanied by GayLyn Capitano and The New Moon String Ensemble.

January 14, 2024 - The “Amazing” Steel Drums will present sounds of islands and sunshine.

March 10, 2024 - Ocala Youth Symphony, composed of young people from Marion and neighboring counties, directed by Cindy Warringer.

April 21, 2024 -- The Central Florida Master Choir presents their Spring Concert, directed by Dr. Hal McSwain and accompanied by GayLyn Capitano and The New Moon String Ensemble.

May 5, 2024 – Raul Ramirez Lugo, Countryside’s Music Director and member John Goulet, will present voice and piano concert.